KEY 2015 STATISTICS

UNITED STATES

• US corporate housing revenues were $2.93 billion in 2015, a 7% increase over 2014.
• Per survey respondents, US corporate housing inventory is estimated at over 63,000 rental units while Canada adds approximately another 7,000 rental units.
• The average stay in the US was 84 nights in 2015.
• Occupancy in the US has remained stable at 88.1%.
• Relocation continues to be the main reason for client stays in the US while project and training accounts for the majority of stays in Canada.
• Overall, US corporate housing average daily rate (ADR) was $143 in 2015, a 4.1% increase. ADR in Canada is estimated at $128.
Across Canada corporate housing is often referred to as executive suites. The statistics reported for Canada in this survey are all in Canadian dollars and include Toronto, Calgary, Vancouver and Other Areas. Toronto is divided into the Downtown and the Greater Toronto Area (GTA) Suburbs MSAs for this report.

Canadian research in the corporate housing/executive suite industry is evolving. This report has six years of history on the Canadian market. The supply of units in Canada was estimated at 7,347 in 2014, an increase of 1.8% compared to 2013. Corporate housing providers in Canada expect unit supply to increase 1.8% in 2015 from 2014.
For a complete copy of the Corporate Housing Industry Report, order here. This report is complimentary to media representatives. The report summarizes a total of fifty-five US markets and five markets in Canada. Each market is specifically and individually highlighted.