

CITY OF BOSTON • MASSACHUSETTS

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
MARTIN J. WALSH

May 9, 2018

TO THE CITY COUNCIL

Dear Councilors:

After a robust round of engagement with your Honorable body, stakeholders, business owners, and most importantly, residents from across the City, I hereby transmit for your approval an Ordinance Allowing Short-Term Residential Rentals in the City of Boston. This ordinance provides a process through which certain dwelling units may be registered with the City for use as short-term rental units.

As we've heard from stakeholders over the past several months, it is clear that we have shared goals. Bostonians want to be able to access the economic opportunities that short term rentals can provide, but they recognize the importance of establishing reasonable regulations that limit certain short term rental uses in a way that protects long term housing from being converted to commercial short term rental use. However, we also heard that the initial regulatory approach did not address certain concerns and that we needed to make adjustments.

This proposal includes several important changes that incorporate this valuable feedback. We heard loud and clear that we needed to rethink our approach to investor units. Allowing non-owner, non-tenant occupied residential units to be used for short term rentals, but only up to 90 nights per year, did not work for a variety of stakeholders. We knew when we proposed the policy that the investor unit category would be a point of contention. We tried to be balanced. Ultimately, we decided that this type of short term rental use in residential units was not what most Bostonians wanted, so we've removed it from the policy. Property owners that want to use residential units for short term rentals outside the bounds on this ordinance will still have the option of applying for and securing a change of use and occupancy for those units, so that they are appropriately licensed and categorized as commercial, rather than residential use. This will require community engagement through the Zoning Board of Appeal process, and will give residents an opportunity to have their voices heard for each and every proposed change of use.

We heard from small property owners that they wanted more flexibility in what type of short term rental activity was allowed in the buildings that they owned and lived in. To that end, we're proposing that owner-occupants can use the unit that they live in for short term rentals without a limitation on nights-per-year. For owner-occupants of two- and three-family buildings, owners will be able to rent out a second unit up to 120 nights per year and their own unit however they want. Increasing the annual cap on these types of Owner-Adjacent Units will provide extra income, but still maintain and incentivize long-term rentals and protect housing supply for residents.

Finally, we've revised our approach to corporate housing units to clarify and codify this type of business that has operated in our City for decades. We worked to further distinguish this type of use from commercialized short-term rental uses.

I urge your Honorable Body to adopt this Order as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

The Commissioner shall keep records of all complaints received and determinations made.
- c. Right to Hearing. A person upon whom a notice of violation has been served may request a hearing from ISD by filing a written petition requesting a hearing on the matter with ISD within fourteen (14) days after the day the notice of violation was served. Upon receipt of a petition for hearing, ISD shall notify the complainant of the place, date and time of the hearing. The hearing shall occur no later than two (2) weeks after the date ISD receives the petition for hearing. If a written petition for a hearing is not filed with ISD within fourteen (14) days after the notice of violation has been served, or if, after a hearing, the notice of violation has been sustained in any part, each day's failure to comply with the notice of violation within the time allotted as issued or modified shall constitute a separate violation.

The provisions of this section may also be enforced according to M.G.L. Chapter 40U as accepted by the City of Boston, also known as the "Green Ticket" law.
- b. Enforcement by Booking Agent. The Commissioner shall enter into agreements with Booking Agents for assistance in enforcing the provisions of this section, including but not limited to an agreement whereby the Booking Agent agrees to remove a listing from its platform for exceeding the maximum number of days a Residential Unit may be offered as a Short-Term Rental, whereby the Booking Agent agrees to remove a listing from its platform that is deemed ineligible for use as a Short-Term Rental under the provisions of this Ordinance, and whereby the Booking Agent agrees to prohibit a host from listing any listing without a valid registration number from the City.

Any Booking Agent that fails to enter into such agreements to actively prevent, remove or de-list any ineligible listings shall be prohibited from conducting business in the City.

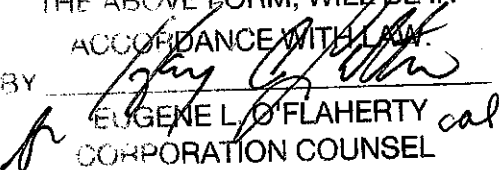

9-14.11 Data Sharing.
